Dear Harvey and Norman:

When I visited you in New York earlier this week I wanted to thank you for your appraisal work for the ANS and for me. It ended up that I had a very good time at your firm and wanted to thank you for that as well as for the pleasant lunch.

The good news that the balance of the coins have been recovered by the police was just as you anticipated, so the miracle has actually happened.

Thank you again for your courtesies and helpfulness.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
